

THE BLESSING

Music: Ornette Coleman

Lyrics: Nora McCarthy - Copyright 2005 RedZenMusic Publishing - BMI

Whatever the problem is,
the blessing and solution co-exist.
Give one today and you'll receive one (free),
the benefit is just so rewarding.

Whenever you're feelin' low down,
the blessing's always somewhere to be found.
Un-blind your eyes (sight) and you'll awaken,
to a moment of pure revelation!

Keep love in your heart and you will soon discover how,
little things that used to matter,
don't seem to matter ow.

It's part of the Master's Plan,
to give us many things to understand.
In Promise Land there's no reprisals,
remember to look for the BLESSING.
